Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Lynn Coonrod. He has dedicated the past 36 years to serving the needs of South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, Lynn has served as manager of the Winner Department of Labor and Regulation for the last 30 years. During his first 6 years at the Department of Labor and Regulation, he worked as a job program representative, an employment and training representative, and a labor program specialist; and,

Whereas, Lynn will be missed for his likeable personality, relaxed approach to life, and unique humor; and,

Whereas, Lynn plans to spend his retirement catching up on his fishing and spending time goose hunting with his chocolate lab, Bailey; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the contributions of Lynn Coonrod to the state of South Dakota during his many years of employment with state government:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 23, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his colleagues and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
